Nido Tania died due to injuries to his head and face: Postmortem report

TNN | Updated: Feb 10, 2014, 14:51 IST
02:38

NEW DELHI: Arunachal Pradesh student Nido Tania died due to injuries to his head and face caused by a blunt object, the postmortem report has revealed. The postmortem report, which is likely to be submitted before the Delhi high court on Monday, says that 19-year-old Tania died due to "blunt trauma on head and face", police sources said.

With this the three people arrested for his death, may now be tried for murder.

The initial post-mortem report had not revealed "much injury or aberration" on his body.

His death had triggered protests in the capital with people from the northeast alleging racial discrimination against those from the region. On January 29, Nido and his friends had an altercation with some shopkeepers in Lajpat Nagar Market, following which he was attacked by the locals.

He died in a hospital the next day.

A police investigation status report accessed by TOI categorically said that Nido had two fights with the shopkeeper and his friends.

The report mentions the sequence of events on January 29. Nido and his friends, Rikam and Thaki, it says, had gone to meet their friend, Larken, at Lajpat Nagar.

When they asked the shopkeeper for directions, he poked fun at Nido's hairstyle which annoyed him and he smashed a glass pane of the shop.

The agitated shopkeeper and his three associates immediately pounced on Nido, beat him up and made derogatory remarks about his caste, race and looks, the report says.

Once neighbours intervened, the fight stopped but the shopkeepers insisted on compensation and Nido gave them Rs 7,000.

After the matter was sorted out, Nido reached Larken's house nearby. "This is when a crowd again confronted them and two people from that group slapped Nido and made objectionable remarks on his caste and appearance," the source said quoting the report. A police team apparently reached the spot after this.
